ELKS GIVE FINAL SHOW

Greeted by Fair-Sized
House With Much Applause.

No mistake was made after all by the Elks' Minstrels in giving a warmed-over edition of their "bunch of nonsense" at the Opera House last night. A fair-sized patronage, filling the best parts of the house, gave a hearty response to the succession of good hits making up the entertainment.

Many new gags were sprung from the circle. Some fine numbers were sung by the Dillingham quintet—Messrs. Jas. D. Dougherty, first tenor; Harold Dillingham, second tenor; I. S. Dillingham, first bass, and Walter Dillingham, second bass.

Roars of laughter were produced by "gingham quartet's" roller skating stunt, with comic song—the quartet consisting of Messrs. Robt. W. White, Guy Livingston, J. Hastings Howland and J. C. Johnson.

Hugo Herzer, despite a cold, gave a fine baritone solo in the finale, leading as a dismissal "Auld Lang Syne" by the entire company. In this piece, with its band of Indians in brilliant costume, a stage spectacle was presented which has seldom if ever been equaled in Honolulu. The number included the Elks' silent toast to absent members on the strike of eleven. As the last screen was rolled up in magenta light, revealing the noble figure of an elk in the background of forest, there was tumultuous though somewhat premature applause—for it drowned Mr. Herzer's voice in one of his most effective bars.

PARTING REGARDS.

Last night's program contained this polite card:

Honolulu Lodge No. 616, B. P. O. E., through its committee, take this opportunity to express its thanks and appreciation to those who have assisted them in this production, to the principals and chorus whose untiring efforts have gone far towards making it the success that we feel it will be, to the merchants of Honolulu for their generous use of program space, to the press for their many little courtesies in keeping our production before the public, and to the music-loving people of Honolulu for their patronage and attendance here tonight.

YACHT CLUB'S BIG BENEFIT

The Hawaii Yacht Club plans particular delights for the 22nd, 23rd and 24th instant, at the Opera House, when four performances will be given for the benefit of the club by the Buhler Company of players who have for nearly five months entertained Honolulu in so splendid a manner at the Orpheum.

"Held by the Enemy" will be presented Thursday and Saturday evenings, the 22nd and 24th, and on Friday evening and at the matinee on Saturday, 23rd and 24th, "Thelma" will be played. The Buhlers and the Hawaii Yacht Club will combine to make the events unique in the history of local pleasures. Special features are to be introduced between the acts of the plays, when members of the Yacht Club will do novel stunts. There will therefore be continuous entertainment from the rising to the going down of the curtain.

The second largest crowd ever taken from Honolulu by any boat bound for the Orient sailed away with the Manchuria at ten o'clock yesterday morning, forty-three passengers having boarded the liner at this port. Some of these were departing tourists, who had stopped over to see the beauties of Hawaii, and there were a number of Honoluluans who will go into business in the Far East.

Dr. Ritter and wife, who are on their way to France, where the doctor will attend a convention of scientists, continued their journey which will take them around the world.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapin, who finally decided to visit the Orient instead of remaining here, were among those sailing. W. Heen and his bride, two popular young people of Honolulu, were given a hearty send-off by many friends, best wishes for their success in Shanghai being expressed. Yee Chan and family will visit a short time in China.

The Schiff party attracted a good deal of attention when they boarded the liner off as usual.

ON THE OVERDUE LIST.

As a result of the storms which swept the South Pacific last month, reported in San Francisco by the liner Mariposa, two ships from Newcastle, Australia, are posted among the overdue for reinsurance. One of these is the British bark Pactolus, for Honolulu, now out 68 days, the other being the bark Sea King, bound for the Coast and out now 59 days.

There is no particular reason for anxiety in the case of the vessels posted, but the underwriters take no chances and make a rule of reinsuring all risks that might have been in the path of any unusually severe disturbance of the elements. They are all quoted at 15 per cent.

RUSHING LAWTON REPAIRS.

When the transport Lawton reached Vallejo on the 4th inst. all her boilers were leaking and a large number of sockets had to be taken out and repairs made. The Navy Department has issued urgent orders for the refitting of the transport, which is to sail on April 7 with stores for Admiral Train's fleet. As a result of these orders every available boiler-maker at Mare Island has been put to work patching up the boilers to allow her to sail on time.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The schooner Chas. Levi Woodbury came in from Hilo at 3:30 yesterday afternoon.

The steamer Claudine arrived yesterday from Maui ports. Good weather on the trip was reported.

The steamer Helene is taking on 380 tons of nitrate at the Wilder wharf for the Makawili plantation.

The barkentine Echo goes on the marine railway this morning for a general overhauling. She loaded forty tons of rock ballast yesterday.

The O. S. S. Ventura departed for the Colonies at 4 a. m. yesterday, taking only one Honolulu passenger, Miss Cartwright, who will visit in Auckland.

The French bark Brenn has made way for the American ship Bangalore at the naval wharf and is now taking on ballast. The Bangalore began discharging coal yesterday morning.

News was received last week in shipping circles at the Coast that the overdue British ship Swansea Castle, bound from St. Lucia for Table Bay, had been abandoned at sea, a total loss.

The schooner Helene cleared from San Francisco for this port on Wednesday of last week, bringing a cargo valued at $29,195. Mill-stuff, explosives and cement are the principal items coming.

The bark Kalulani is en route to Honolulu from the Coast, sailing from San Francisco on the 7th. In her cargo, which totals $56,885 in value, are six tons of sugar and a considerable amount of wine, whisky, brandy, gin and beer.

The British bark Drumcraig, owned by the Barneson & Hibberd Company of this city and long overdue from Astoria for Manila, was posted on March 6 as missing. This means that all hope for her safety has been abandoned.

Having finished the discharging of her cargo at the old Claudine wharf yesterday afternoon the Coronado was towed over to the Oceanic wharf, where she is loading sugar. She will take on 27,000 bags in all, most of which is ready for her at the railroad wharf.

Commander Niblack and Lieutenant Carter are expected back from Kauai next Tuesday, when they will take a further cruise on the U. S. S. Itasca. The intention is for Lieutenant Carter to visit all the light stations on the islands this month while the present commander is here to explain all the local conditions.

FORTY ARRESTS MADE YESTERDAY

Various gambling games were summarily disturbed by the police yesterday. In addition to the arrest of the Chinese gamblers on Beretania another Chinese raid was made opposite the railway station at 9 o'clock and half a dozen gamblers and their layout brought to the police station. Then a Porto Rican dive in the Winston Building, corner of Hotel and River streets, was visited and eight more card men added to the day's catch.

Vagrancy charges against nine more Koreans were made last night and the number of arrests for the day swelled to nearly forty. Sundry of these are for drunks and assaults, and one charge against J. Kekuene, is for wife beating.

Park Expert Robinson and the members of the Promotion Committee were the guests of the Oahu Railway and Land Company yesterday spending the day at the Haleiwa hotel. In the party were C. M. Robinson, A. F. Griffiths, F. C. Smith, general passenger agent O. R. & L. Co., Geo. P. Denison, superintendent O. R. & L. Co., J. A. McCandless, E. I. Spaulding, J. W. Waldron and H. P. Wood.

Justice Hartwell rendered an opinion yesterday affirming the circuit judge's decree sustaining the demurrer of defendant in the ejectment suit of Annie Kealoha and Keoni Williams vs. W. R. Castle, trustee. As the court had advised the procedure in a former decision, this decision was a formal one obtained for the purpose of an appeal to Washington.
